The central committee meets in this city next Saturday, Oct. 5. Every member is urged to attend. Our committee meetings are always largely attended and we hope this one will not be an exception to the rule.

There were so many pretty young ladies on exhibition for the prize at the Alva fair that the judges were unable to render a decision. Those judges were level headed; they knew that life is still worth living for.

List of letters remaining uncalled for in the P. O. at Medicine Lodge Kansas for the week ending Sept. 28, '95. Mr. C. B. Ewart, Mr. George Bunch, Mr. Sam Boss, Mr. J. H. Williams, Horace Pardee, Joe McDowell, T. A. McCleary, P. M.

Editor Milt Hull was up from Kiowa Saturday. Milt never comes to the county seat but when he has a good word for the peoples ticket. He says things are looking awfully populistish down his way. Milt is a worker and don't you forget it.

With two little children subject to croup we do not rest easy without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, for the most severe attacks quickly succumb to a few doses of it.—Morrison, Colo., Urd. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by J. H. Young Drug Co.

O. L. Day and family bade adieu to their friends last Saturday and departed for Hutchinson, Minnesota, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Day is one of the old residents of Medicine Lodge and his absence will be missed in the business circles of this city. We wish Mr. Day every success which he merits in his new location.

When you buy flour, see Woodward. It will be to your interest. 19tf

A business change in the firm of Glaser & Co., by which Aug. Schmidt retires, was effected on the 21st ult. See dissolution notice elsewhere in this paper. Gas is a cordial wholesome business clerk and we are sorry to hear of his retiring. He will probably enter into another branch of business before long, at least, we hope he will.

Guy Sparks went to Kansas City Monday, partly on business and partly for a pleasure trip. Guy is figuring on looking up a new location some place in Missouri. We usually wish such good citizens as Guy success in any venture, but in this instance we hope he will not find anything that will attract him away from old Barber. He is too good a citizen to lose.

We received an introduction to Prof. Kenwell, of the Kiowa schools, last Saturday. He accompanied Messrs. Hull and Glenn to our burg. The Prof. hails from Emporia and, of course, hasn't that exalted opinion of this gasden spot of God's country that he will have after staying in this county a few months. We were glad to make the Professor's acquaintance.

If your children are subject to croup watch for the first symptom of the disease—hoarseness. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse it will prevent the attack. Even after the croupy cough has appeared the attack can always be prevented by giving this remedy. It is also invaluable for colds and whooping cough. For sale by J. R. Young Drug Co.

Alva Review: Mrs. Edward Howard died on Tuesday night of this week at the residence of her son-in-law, E. Winnet, in Driftwood township. Her death was due to a complication of diseases she, having been bedfast during the past six months.... C. B. Westcott, of Driftwood township, had a very fine herd of shorthorn cattle on exhibition at the fair last week, which was the object of much admiration. The herd consisted of one bull, three cows, two yearling heifers and a suckling calf. Mr. Westcott is one of the most extensive breeders in the county and ranks among the very best in this section.

Miss Alice Horton met with a terrible accident last Friday night which might have cost her life. Just before retiring she set a lamp somewhat carelessly on a chair and the burner, which was not properly adjusted, fell off and the fire caught to the coal oil in the lamp. Miss Horton grasped the lamp to throw it out of the window and the flames spread over her body burning severely. Dr. C. L. Sparks was the first to see the flames in the house and he quickly spread the alarm. Dr. Moore is attending Miss Horton and says that she will recover without any permanent injuries.

Joseph Watkins and wife, parents of Wm. Watkins, arrived from Iowa last Thursday on a visit. Mr. Watkins was here ten years ago but says things look different than they did on his prior visit. He brought with him some of Iowa's fruit production for exhibition and, through his son, exhibited a few samples at this office. He says he has more apples than he can use and feed to his stock and that he cannot dispose of them at any price. Kansas could use all he and his neighbors have if we could only get them here. But right there is where the trouble lies. The railroad companies are too swindlers. Mr. and Mrs. Watkins went to Cleo, O. T. yesterday to visit another son—Lee.

Peoples Party Meetings.

There will be a series of school house meetings during the campaign throughout the county beginning October 14th. Messrs. Landis, McKay, Ellis, Beals and Blach have already been secured to make speeches at these meetings. All these speakers have reputations on the rostrum and are well informed on the political issues of the day. Be sure to attend these meetings in your respective neighborhoods. The following is a list of appointments arranged by the committee:

- Oct. 14—Mingona school house.
- Oct. 15—Elm Mills.

There will be twenty premiums given, a list of which will be given later.

NOTES.

No plant or cut bloom shall receive a premium unless owned by exhibitor 30 days previous to the first of November.

A blue ribbon shall designate first premium, red ribbon second.

Application for entries for competition may be addressed to Mrs. Cook, President or Mrs. Waldron Chase, Secretary of association, Medicine Lodge, Kansas.

The fair will be open to the public each day according to dates from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Plants sold during the fair cannot be removed before the close of the exhibition unless by permission of the President.

All those desiring further information may address either the President or Secretary.

An urgent invitation is extended to every lady in Barber county to join with us in making this fair a success, it being our first attempt we are very anxious to get a great number of plants and blooms.

The date of the fair has not yet been decided upon. It will be ready for publication soon.

Miss Emma Carter, who has been staying with E. Youmans and wife, her uncle and aunt, for almost a year, left Saturday for her home in Washington, New Jersey.

Dr. C. L. Sparks left yesterday to take a course at a dental college in Kansas City. He will return to Medicine Lodge and resume his practice after graduating.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

Miss Blanche Young is the recipient of a new "Falcon" ladies bicycle purchased by Mr. and Mrs. George Hibbard as a birthday present. Miss Blanche was "sweet sixteen" yesterday.

W. O. Horr, ticket agent at this place, received notice Saturday of a 30 days lay off. J. M. Fassnacht is now temporarily filling the position. We have not learned why the company made the change. In all probability Mr. Horr will be reinstated after the 30 days expire.

It was mean of Harry Matthews to say anything about a prospective type writer girl before Mrs. Sparks left. Henry is walking mighty straight now, just because Harry stuck his lip in. That's all right, Harry's wife may go away some day and then Henry will get a chance to play even.

Harry Glenn, editor of the Journal, was up from Kiowa Saturday, feeling the financial knot of the republican central committee. Harry has been wasting a great deal of wind on the republican party and he has arrived at the point where he must have remuneration or sink beneath the surface. Whether his efforts were followed by the sundolph, or not, we have not learned.

Woodward News: Miss Jessie O'Bryan will soon purchase a bicycle and master its mysteries.... County Clerk Doran received last Saturday from U. S. Department of Agriculture several thousand packages of sweet peas, onion and cabbage seeds for distribution among the farmers of this county.... Judge T. L. O'Bryan has been delegated by Governor Brewster to attend the western states conference at Topeka Oct. 1st, 2nd and 3rd, and he leaves for there next Monday. The object of the conference is to encourage gulf shipments at lower freight rates, which, if secured will benefit every producer in the west.

Crisfield.

The weather continues very dry. Wheat sowing is greatly retarded on account of dry weather.

Mr. Gorman began his school in the Egan district Monday. He recently got a first grade certificate at Round Pond, O. T.

L. P. Doll is still seriously sick, but little hopes for recovery.

W. H. Watkins, our genial station agent, has moved to Attila and will take charge of the station there. Mr. Watkins is a kind, obliging and thorough business young man, and what is Crisfield's loss will be Attila's gain.

Mr. Brown has departed for his old home in Indiana. He came here from Nebraska. L. M. Pressall has rented his farm to Rev. E. Watt and brother, and he will move to Kiowa where his son Joel resides. Mrs. P. will visit friends in Iowa this fall and winter. We regret to lose them.

Joe Hubanks has purchased several head of stock and feeding cattle recently. Joe is one of our successful farmers and stockmen.

Mr. Shiver is our new station agent. He came well recommended and will move his family here soon.

Miss Van Valkenburg began her school here Monday. She boards with Mrs. Anderson. Miss Hogue commenced her school Monday in district 70, known as Stone Agency.

G. F. Wilson and wife visited with friends at Attila Sunday.

Mrs. Jones, an aged lady living south of town is working with congeniality. Her death is expected at any hour. Later: She died Sunday evening at 9 o'clock. The funeral took place Monday at 1 o'clock.

W. M. Case planted 40 acres of cane quite late and consequently has an abundance of succulent green feed. W. M. is a good farmer.

S. F. Ward and family will soon move to town and keep a hotel. They will travel overland and expect to be 20 days on the road.

John A. Lester of Cedar township was delivering wheat last week to our grain buyer, W. Z. Wilson.

A lodge or castle of 19 charter members was organized here last Friday evening, known as the Knights and Ladies of the Kreside, by S. H. Skidder, secretary of the supreme lodge. Mr. Skidder is the late superintendent of Kansas. We found him to be a gentleman of true worth and merit, and he was ably assisted by Mr. Lindell of Harper, deputy organizer. Mr. Lindell has worked with untiring energy to institute a lodge here and was highly complimented by Mr. Skidder for his excellent work.

The following officers were duly elected and installed: G. F. Wilson, president; C. F. Ware, president; Mr. Shiver, secretary; Laura E. Ware, treasurer, besides some other officers of minor importance. This lodge is composed of the best people in this vicinity and we predict for it a happy future.

Crownpoint.

It still continues very dry. Heavy frost fell Sunday night doing much damage to the late, Kafir corn, cane etc.

Mack Dobson was in these parts this week making arrangements to have their wheat threshed.

We learn that Mrs. Dobson will move to Wichita this week, where they expect to make their home.

G. L. Graves sold a bunch of steers to Bud Mason Saturday.

Jacob Achenbach has gone to Chicago with his 3 year old steers.

A. L. Noble and his Uncle were in these parts Friday.

No rain yet. The ground is very dry. All farmers who intend to sow wheat are hoping for rain soon.

Miss Mary Olson had a new organ placed in their home this week.

JUSTICE.

If Troubled with Rheumatism.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Apr. 16, 1894.—I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and found it to be all that is claimed for it. I believe it to be the best preparation for rheumatism and deep seated muscular pains on the market and cheerfully recommend it to the public. JNO. G. BROOKS, dealer in boots, shoes, etc., No. 18 Main St.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by J. R. Young Drug Co.

A VERITABLE "BUZZ-SAW."

A SPICY PAPER WHOSE MOTTO IS "RIP 'EM UP THE BACK."

We are just in receipt of a letter from W. S. Morgan, Secretary of the National Reform Press Association, announcing that he has consolidated his two papers, the National Reformer and Buzz-Saw. The publication will hereafter be known as Morgan's Buzz-Saw, and will be issued monthly at 25 cents a year. It is the King of Fun, Wit, Humor, Sarcasm, Parody, Satire and Ridicule among populist papers. It is unlike any other populist paper published, occupying a field peculiarly its own. Any single number of it is well worth 25 cents, and there are instances where a single number sold for as much as 50 cents and one dollar.

We will send the Buzz Saw for one year together with the INDEX for $1.00.

Note: You can get a free sample copy of the Buzz-Saw by addressing a postal card to MORGAN'S BUZZ SAW, Hardy, Ark.
